

CHALUVAMBBA MANSION/VILAS

Ownership & Maintenance	Built as	Used as	Built in/Designed by	Description	Structure	Condition
Government of Karnataka CFTRI	Cheluvamba Mansion is called once the blue blood named Cheluvajammanni; she was the married woman of avatar Raja Wodeyar IV of Wadiyar family line in Mysore. He was a Hindu aristocrat and designed several assets to feature up within the Mysore town. In 1925	Government Council Of Scientific And Industrial Research– Central Food Technological Research Institute (CSIR–CFTRI)	1910 AD Cheluvamba Mansion is made in a very semi classical style of the fashionable Republic of India design.	Cheluvamba Mansion is found within the town of Mysore, Mysore it absolutely was designed by prince Krishnaraja Wodeyar IV for the third patrician of Mysore - Cheluvajammanni and it's kind of like different mansions built by them that are adjoin an outsized space encircled by gardens. This mansion is crafted like different buildings of the Wadiyar family. Most of those buildings were designed for private use. most these buildings are intact to the present day. Most of those royal buildings house variety of recent establishments of the town of Mysore. These buildings are glorious samples of the wonderful acquisition that existed in Mysore in those days. These extremely embellished and elaborately graven royal buildings, are preserved and their design remains intact to the present day, as a results of the joint efforts of the folks of Mysore and also the government of Mysore. One such building is that the Cheluvamba Mansion.	Cheluvamba Mansion is made in a very semi classical style of the fashionable Republic of India design	GOOD

CHITTARANJAN MANSION / VILAS

Ownership & Maintenance	Built as	Used as	Built in/Designed by	Description	Structure	Shape/ Extent	Condition
Private Hotel	1916	Hotel	Chittaranjan Palace was built by the Maharaja of Mysore for his sister in 1916	The palace was sold to a Mysorean family who then converted it into the headquarters of a film company, "Premier Studios". Many films and TV shows were shot, including the famous TV serial The Sword of Tipu Sultan. The studio was closed down after a fire broke out but was still owned and operated by the same family that owned Premier Studio. The building was used as a private residence until it was converted into a hotel, called			Good

				"Green Hotel" in the 1970s. The same family still has a major stake in the hotel and the residence as a whole.
--	--	--	--	--	--	--	--